Fred Henry Arm

Fred Henry Arm, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 3, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crimes of grand theft, and defrauding an innkeeper. He served five months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on October 7, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Fred Henry Arm has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, an order dated May 5, 2006, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Arm reports that he is active with organizations supporting marine animals, national parks, and local anti-violence initiatives. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Fred Henry Arm has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Fred Henry Arm a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 25th Day of March, 2016.

Terri Lynn Belmonte (Hagmann)

Terri Lynn Belmonte, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about June 27, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crimes of burglary, possession of a controlled substance, and receiving known stolen property. She was sentenced on or about April 12, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. She was sentenced on or about July 27, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego for the crime of petty theft with a prior. She served a total of eleven months probation, one year, eleven months prison, and one year, one month parole. She was discharged on July 15, 1999, having completed her sentences.

Terri Lynn Belmonte has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated May 10, 2013, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Belmonte currently works in the mental health field as a certified Addiction Treatment Specialist, and she volunteers with women's groups. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

The Board of Parole Hearings received and reviewed Ms. Belmonte's pardon application and related materials pursuant to California Penal Code section 4802, and recommended her for a pardon on October 20, 2015. Ms. Belmonte also received a recommendation for a pardon by a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court of California, received on March 9, 2016, as required by article V, section 8 subdivision (a) of the California Constitution.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Terri Lynn Belmonte has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Terri Lynn Belmonte (Hagmann) a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

Fernando Montes-Rodriguez

Fernando Montes-Rodriguez, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 3, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Montes-Rodriguez robbed a liquor store. He served two years, eight months California Youth Authority, and three years parole. He was discharged on February 13, 1998, having completed his sentence.

Fernando Montes-Rodriguez has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated January 6, 2016, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Montes-Rodriguez works with at-risk youth. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Fernando Montes-Rodriguez has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Fernando Montes-Rodriguez a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 25th Day of March, 2016.

Heather Dawn Stewart has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Heather Dawn Stewart, has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Heather Dawn Stewart a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 25th Day of March, 2016.

Dolores Therese Velasquez

Dolores Therese Velasquez, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about May 26, 1977, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of using or being under the influence of a controlled substance. She served four years, seven months probation, and 30 days jail. She was discharged on August 22, 1967, having completed her sentence. She was sentenced on or about May 15, 1963 in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. She served two years, five months probation, and 180 days jail. She was discharged on November 20, 1979, having completed her sentence.

Dolores Therese Velasquez has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated September 12, 2013, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Velasquez has worked as a case manager at various entities that serve the homeless, domestic violence survivors, and children, and has received numerous commendations recognizing her efforts. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

The Board of Parole Hearings received and reviewed Ms. Velasquez's pardon application and related materials pursuant to California Penal Code section 4802, and recommended her for a pardon on June 7, 2014. Ms. Velasquez also received a recommendation for a pardon by a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court of California, received on February 24, 2016, as required by article V, section 8 subdivision (a) of the California Constitution.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Dolores Therese Velasquez has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Dolores Therese Velasquez a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 25th Day of March, 2016.
